Columbia Downed in Muddy Battle, While Fordham Defeats Old Rival---Schoolboy Elevens Have Gala Day Here

20 to 0-Only Two First Downs for Losers.

ACKLEY'S TOE ACTIVE

the Archbold Stadium, this afternoon. The twenty points were gathered on two touchdowns with the goals follow-ing and two goals from the field by e-back Willard Ackley, One touchdown was made by line bucking in the from field was kicked by Ackley from the 25 yard mark. Early in the on a 15 yard forward pass from Ackley to Schwarzer.

Later in the third period Ackley bosted another field goal from the same spot from which he kicked the field goal in the second quarter. There was no scoring done in the last quarter, when both Coaches Dawson and O'Neill made wholesale substitutions. Columbia was able to make just two first downs in the hour of play and both of these ten yard gains by rushing ere made late in the game after the est string players of Syracuse had been to the gymnasium to scrape the

The game was a losing venture. It is not likely that any more Turkey Day games will be tried here because of the unseasonable weather at this time of the It is understood that Columbia here without any guarantee and that a fifty-fifty split on the gate will be made. There will be little to split and the managements will be fortunate if they get out without losing money. Kernan kicked off for Syracuse at the start of play and Canapery rushed the ball back fifteer yards to Columbia's 25 yard line. After gaining five yards in three smashes at the line, Houlahan punted to Kernan on Syracuse's 22 yard ne and he carried the leather back six

Then began an assault by Barsha, Erw.g. Kernan and Ackley, with the ma-fority of plays being off either tackle, with occasionally a drive into the cen-In seventeen plays the ball was carried seventy-two yards over the Co-lumbia goal line. Johnny Barsha, Brook-lyn comet, was given the honor of making the touchdown after the ball had been taken to the 1 yard mark directly in front of the Columbia goal posts. Ackley then k ked the goal.

Kernan again kicked off for Syracuse and this time Collins grabbed the ball out of the air and carried it back seven words to the 27 ward mark. Robb and vards to the 37 yard mark. Robb and Canapery got five yards, and then Stens punted to Kernan on Syracuse's 27 rd line, where the ball was fumbled, the scramble a Columbia man recov-This was the nearest that Coabla got to the Orange goal posts and the only chance the New Yorkers had to attempt a field goal. Columbia was unable to make any rdage, and Stevens tried a field goal ch was blocked and recovered by Co-seven yards to Columbia's 15 yard four touchdowns and I Columbia again showed fight goals. The lineup: 25 yard line and sent the ball between the uprights for a field Syracuse was inside Columbia's 20 the second half Kinninger kicked or Columbia and Ackley carried the Ackley, Erwig and Barsha took Ackley then dropped back to yard line and another field goal was ne- New York University and Ford- Maxwell. ham back, carried the ball back ten yards. Ackley followed with a punt to Bobb, who was downed in his tracks on umbia's 25 yard line. Stevens punted Ankley on Syracuse's 40 yard line, and . s.s. Bareha and Kernan were given a. thance to show their line plunging abil-

Score Another Touchdown.

bey sliced through the Blue and until the 15 yard mark was

SYRACUSE CONQUERS Fordham Football Team COLUMBIA ELEVEN Finally Downs Georgetown

Up-Staters Triumph in Mud, After Nine Years of Failure Maroon Scores Over Its Great Playing of Joe Strauss Traditional Rival by 14 to 0-Frisch's Forward Passes Play Prominent Role in Success.

By FREDERICK G. LIEB.

period. Garvey scored the first after a Garvey, who was standing just within 45 yard run, and Corsello was behind the goal line when he took the second.

Garvey, who was standing just within the side lines on the right side of the field.

Frisch stood out in every department.
Two-thirds of the time he rushed the ball for Fordham. He was on one or the other end of forward passes, did all of Fordham's kicking and market. of Fordham's kicking, and usually ran back punts. On the defence he was the same marvel and seemed to be able to sense forward passes by Georgetown. Time after time the visiting quarter-

The ball was wet and slippery and Frisch intercepted only one of them, but line after it left Frank's toes. It looked played a great game. He did not score on the pigskin before a Georgetown man as though it had gone over the line, but any of the touchdowns, but his defensive on the pigskin before a Georgetown man as though it had gone over the line, but any of the touchdowns, but his defensive on the pigskin before a Georgetown man as though it had gone over the line, but any of the touchdowns, but his defensive on the pigskin before a Georgetown for the country of the score of the pigskin before a Georgetown for the day, the slippery ball from the pigskin before a Georgetown for the country of the score. He did not score the pigskin before a Georgetown for the country of the score of the pigskin before a Georgetown for the country of the score of the pigskin before a Georgetown for the country of the score of the pigskin before a Georgetown for the country of the score of the pigskin before a Georgetown for the country of the score of the pigskin before a Georgetown for the pigskin before a on the pigskin before a Georgetown man the officials evidently did not think so, work was the best seen of could get near it. He outpunted Slavin at it was Georgetown's ball on its own Field this year. The lineup: by such a margin that there was no comparison. A few minutes before Fordham scored its second touchdown Frisch punted from his own 25 yard line to Georgetown's one yard line, the ball salling well over Hampston's head.
In the first quarter Georgetown actually outplayed Fordham. It had Frisch pretty well boxed in, and several times downed him in his tracks as he tirled to run back punts. Georgetown there yard line. Fordham lost three yards, and an offside penalty put them back to Georgetown's twenty yard line. Here two forward passes took the ball over.

Frisch to Garvey advanced the ball to the six yard line.

times downed him in his tracks as he tried to run back punts. Georgetown the six yard line, the throw being had the ball a yard and a half from the Maroon goal line in this period. A fumble by Corsello on an attempted trick play gave Georgetown the ball on Fordham's 11 yard line. On the third line smash the Biue-Gray missed making it a first down on Fordham's 1 yard face of the fordham is 1 yard line.

Georgetown centre, also played a rat-

PENN TRIUMPHS

Enables Quakers to Win by Score of 20 to 1.

ACKLEY'S TOE ACTIVE

Systematical passes of the second period were offered by the second period were offered with Fordinam in possession of the ball on its own sight of its ancient and most bitter rival, Georgetown, in their football game at the Sprecial Despatch to Tax Stx.

Stractist, Nov. 28.—Proving themselves better mudiarks than the Commitist players, the Syracuse football team sent the New York eleven to defeat 20 to 0, in a drenching rain here take Archbold Stadium, this afternoon, and the second period were off like clockwork.

By FREDERICK G. LIEB.

Severything Fordham attempted in the Second period went off like clockwork in the second period went off like clockwork in the bedong a rain the second period went off like clockwork in the bedong a rain the second period went off like clockwork in the bedong a rain the second period went off like clockwork in the bedong a rain the second period went off like clockwork in the bedong a rain the second period went off like clockwork in the bedong a rain the second period went off like clockwork in the bedong a rain the second period went off like clockwork in the bedong a rain the second period went off like clockwork in the bedong a rain the second period went off like clockwork in the bedong a rain them took and the puriod in the second period went off like clockwork in the bedong a rain the second period went off like clockwork in the clockwork in the bedong a rain them took and the puriod in the second period went off like clockwork in the clockwork in the bedong a rain them took a wight of its ancient and most bitter rival, georgetown, in their football game at the quarter opened with Fordham in the second period went off like clockwork in the second period went off like clockwork in the bedong a rain them took was a propriate clockwork. The first ham's 20 yard line. Georgetown also was obliged to kick, and Frisch was a propriate clockwork on his own 15

Garvey was on Georgetown's 45 yard line, and with a clear field in front of him he dashed down the field for a touchdown. The entire play netted sixty yards. Frisch kicked the goal, Frisch's Great Pant.

Time after time the visiting quarterback called for this mode of advance, but only once did it succeed, and then the bounding almost to the Georgetown goal to bounding almost to the Georgetown goal

Fordham's 11 yard the. On the third line smash the Biue-Gray missed making it a first down on Fordham's 1 yard Garvey Left end Cusac's Mahoney Left tackle Aheari Farrington Left guard Groggit Van Wie Centre Heapt More Licut. Rose Proves a Star.

Dunellan, who succeeded Hampston as Georgetown's quarterback in the scond half, was the most brilliant player wearing the Blue and Gray. His specialty was running back kicks, and three times he got away with long runs after catching Frisch's punts. Twice only one Fordham player stood between Dunellan and an open field.

Lieut. Rose, right guard for Fordham, the lieut. Rose of the l

CROSSED BY STATE

Panthers Yield First Touch- Lear Stars in Football Victory down This Year But Are Victors, 28 to 6.

mbia on the 31 yard mark. A few nutes later Kernan grabbed a forward foot all team's goal line was crossed for the first time this year when the sea and two plays by Barsha carried be abil to Syracuse's 29 yard line, and two plays by Barsha carried be abil to Syracuse's 29 yard line, see the first quarter ended.

Privisuse, Nov. 28.—The Pittsburg Peiham Bay sallers led by "King foot all team's goal line was crossed for the first time this year when the penn State team scored a touchdown this afternoon. Pittsburg between the first quarter ended.

For the most part the ball was in midfield or near it while the opposing Pitt (28). Fenn State (6).

4	R. Allahouse Left end Grime
U	Huty
ij	Harmon Left guard Logu-
H	Hendricks . Centre McKenzie
le l	Stanford Right guard I W. Brown
	Mervis Right tackle Henry
E	Harrington hight end G. W. Brown
į.	Gougler Quarterback William N
И	Davies Left halfback Lundberg
ŭ	McCracken . Right halfback Killinge
ĕ	McLaren (Capt.) Fullback (Capt.) Ungle-
ì	Touchdowns, McLaren, 2; Davies, Ungjer
13	Goals from touchdowns-Davies, 4. Missed
Ð	goal from touchdown-G. W. Brown. Sub
ü	stitutions-Pitier for Davies. Horner fo
7	Gougler, Hamborger for McLaren, Ewing
	for Harrington, Farley for Hayes. Befere
ŽŽ.	-J. A Evans. Williams Umpire-H. W.

Maxwell Swarthmore Linesman—Tom Jofferson Umpire—Andrews, Yale, 21cad Thorp, Columbia, Periods—15 minutes each. RIPNS IS HICH CIIN REFERENCE TO Manington and Jofferson Umpire—Andrews, Yale, 21cad Jofferson Tompire—Andrews, Yale, 21cad Jofferson Tompi BURNS IS HIGH GUN AT NEW YORK A. C.

Breaks 94 Out of 100 Targets WALLACE WINS WALK in Holiday Shoot.

when Ackley raced back several Travers Island traps of the New York Leads in Ten and a Half Mile and, like a shot out of a can-Athletic Club yesterday. Although it Handicap in Brooklyn. ad crossed the Columbia goal line conditions were excellent, and no mouth, 0.

Joe Strauss, who at the beginning of the year was one of the greatest disappointments in Penn's gridiron history, redeemed himself just as the curtain was falling in the last scene of the present Red and Hue gridiron campaign. In the fourth period he scored two touchdowns in rapid succession.

With the ball on the five yard mark With the ball on the five yard mark the was sent into the game and he proved that the Strauss of 1918 was as good as the Strauss of 1917. He ripped open the Doly and the Branch on the first play after the kickoff inter on the first play after the kickoff inter the crossbar.

Meistrell went over the Poly goal line to drop kicked a field goal from Commerce's 25 yard line. He also kicked as the Strauss of 1917. He ripped open for an Erasmus touchdown in the section of the first play after the kickoff inter
The Poly Prep-Erasmus game was the lead.

ar. The lineup:
Dartmouth (6).
Left and McDermott Left tackle McDermott Left sackle Richardson
Centre Freeman
Hight guard Davidson
Right tackle Bevan
Right sackle Sanderson
Left halfback Thompson
Right halfback Grundman
Fullback Threshe

Special Despatch to The Sun.

slippery field, which gave the heavy visitors a distinct advantage, the Lafayette football team was beaten by 21 to 0 this afternoon by the Aviator from Garden City, L. I. The lineup: Aviators (21) Left end ... Siever ... Left tackle ... Left guard .

MOVE INTO GARDEN TO-DAY.

for Six Day Race.

morrow night is arousing a lot of in-terest. Kramer will be put to the test when he meets Dupuy, Spears and Verri in the five heat race under rider will lay up in each of the first four heats at a mile. The five will then come together in the final dash,

Results of Yesterday's Football Contests

Georgetown, 9, At Travers Island—Pelham Bay Naval, Grounds-De Witt Clinton, 42; At Behtlehem, Pa.—Camp Crane, 12: Le- Nathar t Easton, Pa. Garden City Aviators, Lafavette, "

OVER DARTMOUTH TITLE GOES TO POLY

Beats Erasmus at Ebbets Field by 7 to 6-Manual and New Utrecht Win.

By GEORGE B. UNDERWOOD. and contented. The 1918 football season was turned into a success when Dartmouth was defeated in the holiday game.

The success when Dartmouth was defeated in the holiday game.

The ball propelled at goal from the toe rivals was that of 1914, when Commerce suffered so crushing the holiday game. of Haasmoot of Easmus in the second won by 41 to 0.

quarter had sailed over the crossbar the Although Galbraith, Capt. Eisenberg, Buff and Elve would have tied the score. Lake and Friedlander all shared the

The other touchdown followed a few minutes later. Fordham again kicked off, and Spavin punted to Fordham's 25 on an intercepted forward pass. Claud Training regain much of its lost football for 19 points, yard line. Here Frisch got off his ban- crawford snatched the ball after it had prestige by beating Boys High School, 13 been thrown by a Dartmosth back and to 0. Earlier this season Boys High Gaibr. fought both Erasmus and Poly Prep to 12,000 See Contests.

About 12,000 fond Brooklyn mothers, Freeman braved lowering skies and wet winds to went over Davidson attend the contests. Regardless of the yard line.

hick, picked up the ball and scurried penalized 5 yards and Galbraith dropped fifteen yards across the Erasmus goal line. McRea followed by kicking the goal that eventually proved the undoing of Erasmus.

The second quarter opened with the ball on Commerce's 35 yard line. Toward line to kick a field line. McRea followed by kicking the goal.

f Erasmus. forced Poly back inside its 20 yard line. Hay blocked Bronder's punt and Van Tronk fell on the ball for Erasmus or Poly's 15 yard line. In two rushes Meistrell made a first down. DeWitt made a yard and a haif. Poly then held Meistrell to no gain on the 1 yard line. On his next attempt, however, "Tote" went over for a touchdown. The lineup:

Right tache

Right end

Quarterback

Left haitback

Right haitback

Fullback

Fullback

Malas

Malas

Manual's line smashing proved Do

High's undoing. After Boys High had held for downs on its 1 yard line in the second period Marcus's poor punt save E INTO GARDEN TO-DAY.

On the first play Toble shot a long forward pass to Sparts over the goal line ward pass to Sparts over the goal line downs, and Schmidt, who accept the state of the for Six Day Race. wound up with Mosezenski going over All the riders who will start in the for a touchdown. The lineup: Manual Training (12). Boys High (6).

Daisley Bight tackle Balleh Sparks Right end Pracect Lange Quarterback Rickman Kamlan Left haif Weiner Tobie Right haif Weiner Tobie Right haif Marcus Moscaenski Fullback Penta Touchdown-Moscaenski Sparks (los) from touchdown-Scotted Substitution-For Boys High Coannan for Kaplan Stavenson for bentz for Manual Kelly for Planting Before R. J. Shearer Dick near Linguist For Market Will Revision for Planting Referred R. J. Shearer Dick near Linguist W. Hastings, Cornell Time of quarters—19 miless.

Sehres Proves a Star. OHI style line bucks won for New touchdown in the first quarter and ked both goals. The lineap; out Circuit (1).

Left end Benevial (2).

Left end Benevial (2).

Left tackle Taiming children Left tackle Taiming children (2).

Left guard Malness (3).

Left guard Fallow (3).

Left guard Fallow (3).

Left halfback Kalian res Left halfback Coburn san Fallow (4).

BROOKLYN GRIDIRON | Clinton Makes Record Score Against Commerce

Red and Black Football Team Triumphs by 43 to 0 in Annual Game at Polo Grounds—Galbraith Is the Shining Light for Winning School.

De Witt Clinton's football team yes- for a field goal from twenty yards, but terday retained the Manhattan-Bronx Blocked kicks and a lone point loomed high school football title by defeating up large at Ebbets Field yesterday. the High School of Commerce eleven at Blocked kicks were converted into touchdowns by both Erasmus Hall and Poly fors had Commerce before her Commerce eleven at the Polo Grounds by 43 to 0. Never before her Commerce eleven at the Polo Grounds by 43 to 0. fore had Commerce suffered so crushing traight goal from touchdown.

But and Flue would have tied the score.
But it skittered along the ground, and with it went Erasmus's hopes.

Foly Frep 7. Erasmus 6, tells the tale of as keenly waged a gridiron battle as ever delighted the heart of a football fan. McRea's kick from touchdown following Lucas's touchdown in the open-loss of the party of the party of the first team in front in the opening the courter went straight and true over ing quarter went straight and true over the crossbar.

Meistrell went over the Poly goal line ter drop kicked a field goal from Comcepted a New England forward pass feature of a triple header among high and ran 40 yards for the last touch-school elevens across the bridge. In the scoring, for in the third quarter he got down of the season.

This was not the end of Galbraith's scoring, for in the third quarter he got another touchdown and kicked three more goals from touchdown, accounting

Galbraith Gets Going.

Following Clinton's opening kickoff in the first quarter, Berger of Commerce wan the ball back to his own 35 yard line, but Commerce was penalized 15 yards. Mitchel punted out of danger to About 12,000 fond Brooklyn mothers, bards. Mitchel punted out of danger to fifthers, sisters, brothers, not to say any midfield. Line plunges by Eisenberg, thing of doting aunts and uncless, post-poned their Thanksgiving dinners and provided lowering skies and wet winds to wort over for a touchdown from the 10 strend law of the contract of the cont outcome of any of the games the crowd was amply repaid for its trip. Both Bernstein of Clinton recovered Gal-Poly and Erasmus displayed as good a braith's kickoff after Commerce had Poly's touchdown came after five minutes of play in the opening period. An exchange of punts found Erasmus in possession of the ball on its own 20 yard line. Poly forced Haasnoot to but Lucas broke there.

oal that eventually proved the undoing the second quarter opened with the ball on Commerce's 25 yard line. Toward the end of the period Galbraith tried.

opening of the second half Galbraith passed the ball to Lake, who ran seventy yards for a touchdown, Galbraith kicked the goal. Late in the period Eisenberg shot a 20 yard forward passe to Galbraith, who ran fifteen yards for a touchdown. Galbraith kicked his third straight goal from touchdown.

Toward the end of the period Samp-Toward the end of the period samp-son tried a forward pass, but was tackled by Taylor of Clinton before the ball was thrown Galbraith made twenty yards around left end to Commerce's 8 yard line. After two plays by Fried-lander and Lake, Friedlander scored a touchdown. Galbraith this time missed his try at goal.

Clinton Still Scoring.

yard line. Another forward pass, Els-enberg to Friedlander, developed the final touchdown of the game. Galbraith kicked goal. Commerce never advanced the ball fu her than Clinton's 20 yard line. Mitchel, Sampson and Berger did well for Commerce. The lineup:

De W. Clinton (42). H. 5
Philips. Left end.
McAnany. Left tackle
Rabinowits. Left gueri
Taylor. Centre
Lawis. Right guerd merce. The lineup: Bernstein. Right end Eisenberg Quarterback Lake. Left halfback Friedlander. Right halfback

FLUSHING AT LAST JOCKEY RODRIGUEZ BEATS BINGHAMTON RIDES FOUR VICTORS

Schoolboys Score Over Up-State Rivals.

defeated the Binghamton High School football team by 19 to @ to-day. It was Hinghamton (6). Kaplen King Quantification of the control of the co

CAMP DIX PLANS TIE.

Service of the port which ended to short product of the port which end for the por for Season in Saddle at Bowie Track.

> four winners. Huda's Brother, Charite lence. Leydecker, Folder and Cobalt Lass. From the onlookers' viewpoint the best Many other riders have ridden three bouts of the afternoon were between winners this year, but Bodriguez, a lit-magno heavyweights. Jeff Clarke and

NEWARK HARRIERS WIN.

NEWARK HARRIERS WIN.

NEWARK HARRIERS WIN.

Win American Scholastic Title

With 38 Points.

PHILADELPHIA, Va., Nov. 25—The Newark Central High School captured the American Interscholastic cross country of stamples of the Course in Fairmount Fark this increning. The Newark athletes scored with 81 rule course in Fairmount Fark this increning. The Newark athletes scored with 81, the Northeast High of Philadelphia
delphia was third, with 94 points.

Three Titles (Nov. 25. The Newark athletes scored with 81, the Northeast High of Philadelphia
delphia was third, with 94 points.

The Three Titles (Nov. 25. The Newark athletes scored with 81, the Northeast High of Philadelphia
delphia was third, with 94 points.

Three Titles (Nov. 25. The Newark athletes scored the course in 1916, He led Barrett over the line by about fifteen feet. Cushman, the third Hisi man, was forty yards behind. The first twenty to finish

1 Douglas, Blair 1916, He led Barrett over
the line by about fifteen feet. Cushman,
the third Hisi man, was forty yards behind. The first twenty to finish

2 Douglas, Blair 1916, He led Barrett over
the line by about fifteen feet. Cushman,
the third Hisi man, was forty yards behind. The first twenty to finish

1 Douglas, Blair 1916, He led Barrett over
the line by about fifteen feet. Cushman,
the third Hisi man, was forty yards behind. The first twenty to finish

2 Douglas, Blair 1916, He led Barrett over
the line by about fifteen feet. Cushman,
the third Hisi man, was forty yards behind. The first twenty to finish

3 Cushman, Riac 1916, He led Barrett over
the first twenty to finish

4 Cushman, Riac 1916, He led Barrett over
the first twenty to finish

5 Cushman, Riac 1916, He led Barrett over
the first twenty to finish

6 Cushman, Riac 1916, He led Barrett over
the first twenty to finish

6 Cushman, Riac 1916, He led Barrett over
the first twenty to finish

6 Cushman, Riac 1916, He led Barrett over
the first twenty to finish

6 Cushman, Riac 1916, He led Barrett over the first twenty to f

Seventh Race—For three year olds and up ward; chaining; one mile and a quarier Poor Butterfly 16 (McAtes, 5 th 10, 27%) was: Puts and Calls, 110 McGrare, $1:0. H. I. Schwartz Merica, 12.19 second; Luther, 11 (Rice), 21 third Time—2:12:24 Petura, Habelte and Amalgamateor also ran.

DEMPSEY FAILS TO PUT MISKE DOWN

Beaten Boxer Hugs at Every Opportunity and Manages

Jack Dempsey like by to a sturdy oak Billy Miske managed to maintain a perpendicular position during the twen-ty-four minutes he was in the ring with iy-four minutes he was in the ring with the Sait Lake puglistic howitzer at the Olympia A. A. here this afternoon. When the welcome gong sounded the end of the eixth round Miske staggered to his corner with a confused look on his face and a crimson flow from his mouth. Miske was a thoroughly beaten man, but he had not been knocked out, and this was due entirely to the fact that he gave a notable demonstration of ex-pert clinching. He hardly could have done more effective hugging had his arms been as numerous as the tentacies of an octopus. Miske several times was doubted up by crashing left handers to the storage hard started by

In the fourth quarter short runs by Lake, Galbraith and Friedlander placed the bail on Commerce's 25 yard line. At twenty yard forward pass, Galbraith to Eisenberg, with Eisenberg running five yards brought another touchdown. Calbraith again failed to kick goal.

With only five minutes to play, Clinton held for downs on Commerce's 35 yard line. Galbraith threw a pass to Eisenberg, who ran to Commerce's 25 yard line. Another forward pass, Eisenberg to Friedlander, developed the Tough on Referee.

Lew Grimson, the referee, exhausted imself in his efforts to drag Miske away from Dempsey, and in this respect the third man in the ring exhibited great in-dustry and much stamins. But he lacked the courage to order Miske to Margolies Macked the courage to order Miske to cease his flagrant violation of the rules McKright and thus turned what should have been a spirited contest into a disappointing hugging match. Miske's constant clinching was accepted by the spectators, who described the big club to the skylights, as open confession of disinclination to fight in the open, and he was urged in no uncertain terms to stop hugging.

uncertain terms to stop hugging.

Despite his evasive tactics Miske was in distress in the last three rounds, and he was in imminent danger of a knockout at least half a dozen times. Toward the last Dempsey made no attempt to defend himself, but rushed in with sledge hammer blows that compelled Misks to

There is not the slightest doubt that Dempsey exerted himself to the utmost to bring the contest to an end before the imit was reached, but Miske declined the issue and hugged to safety. The St. Paul boy grew steadily weaker as a re-sult of the solid thumps he received be-

All Rounds Alike.

One round was very much like another. Dempseys would make a cyclonic rush at Miske and turn loose blows cal-culated to annihilate the Minnesotan, Miske would make a frantic grab for any part of Dempsey that was nearest and hug like a long lost brother. The ref-eree then would dive between the men in the fifth outpointed Lew Stinger in another bout.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 28 .- Johnny Dun-

PELHAM TARS BEAT

of the Gobs at Travers Island by 19 to 0.

Columbia Holds for Downs.

Starting with the second period the Syracuse backs ripped through the Columbia line until the 1 yard mark was reached, where the New Yorkers turned back their opponents and took the ball being columbia. Stevens punted from behind his goal line to Ackley, who carried the ball seven yards to Columbia 15 yard mark. Columbia 15 yard mark. Columbia again showed fight.

	trom fulled on the first two goals, booted the last one squarely between uprights. The lineup:
Ì	Pelham (10). Slocum (0) Fitapatrick Left end Sit Hagan Left tackie B Nostrom Left guard Hi Christe Centre Gil Throckmartin Eight guard Kraht Meshally Bight ackie Ba Dancan Right end H Wakefield Quarterback Moyne Pord Left haifback Kn Bernstein Right haifback Kn Lear Full back Full Referee—Kirberger, Washington

Twining for Hernstein, McMahan for Ford End for Wakefield, Casey for Hagan, John-son for McShally.

AND TURKEY TOO

STATE A 110 MINES MA A	PTCHM6F PC
- 4.5-5		Actu
or. Name.	Hdep.	Tim
-I. Wallace	85:00	1:36:
-A. Peck	33:00	1:47:
-L. Putscher	35:00	1:47:
-F. Breachting		41431
J. Mandula	73:00	11181
-I. Arfmar		1:50:
-1. Buckin.	29:00	11461
-L. Ochinsky	22:00	1.48
		1 - 20
-M. Lipston
-H, Cohen-in-	21:00	1:29:
-Cl. C. Trefry, dr	12:10	1:31:
-J. Coyle	22:00	1:41:
- S. I. Goodman	14:15	1:24:
	35:00	1155
-K. Znich		1:22:
		1000

21. Lafayette, 6.
At Chester, Pa.—Swarthmore, 7: Pennsylvania Military Academy, 6.
At Allbutown, Pa.—Muhlenberg, 15:
Ursinos, 6.
At Villanova, Pa.—Vilanova, 23: Drexel

Bruoklyn Navy Yard Eleven Holds.

After Two Futile Tries Local Little Cuban Makes Record

Bowie Track.

Special Despatch to THE SCA

Binghamton, N. Y. Nov. 25.—The Flushing (L. I.) High School eleven

defeated the Binghamton High School

defeated the Binghamton High School

The battle was fought in a downpour of rain. From the opening kickoff it was evident that Binghanton was outclassed.

Townsend, who scored two touchdowns, and Schmidt, who accounted for the third score, were the heroes for
the third score, were the heroes for Elushing. The lineur:

winners this year, but Rodriguez, a litnegro heavyweights. Jeff Clarke and Sam lankford put up a peppery content, and although the Tar Baby was floored by a right to the jaw in the opening seesiared the honors with his rider. Arslow a right to the jaw in the opening seesion be came back strong and made a good finish. Clarke, who is known as decker and Cobalt Lass, three of the third score, were the heroes for the third score, were the heroes for
the third score, were the heroes for the third score, which is owned by Mrs. T. F. Ranels.

core, were the heroes for the lineup:

the lineup:

(b) Finabling (1D) Support Elm, carrying 119 pounds,

(c) Right and climbding Right (1sgreen Right tark) Control Charles (1sgreen Right Right Right (1sgreen Right Right) (1sgreen Right Right) (1sgreen Right)

(c) Control Charles (1sgreen Right)

(c) Contr

to Stay the 6 Rounds. Special Despatch to THE BUN. PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 28.—Clinging to